REVIEW AND RECOMMENDATIONS, BOARD OF EDUCATION – Monit

C. Schofield: Wished everyone a Happy Thanksgiving.

M. Pitsenbarger: Wished everyone a Happy Thanksgiving; commented that Cadet Clint Robbins did a wonderful job on his presentation and that it was so “fitting” for him to be here this evening.

S. Becher: Congratulated and complimented John Glenn High School for hosting the regional volleyball championship tournament on Friday night and wished everyone a Happy Thanksgiving.

T. McClain: Commended Cadet Clint Robbins for his special tribute to the flag which reminded us that our freedom is not to be taken for granted; and urged the listening audience to contact their congressmen and senators to take action and make the appropriate changes to the No Child Left Behind Act which is up for re-application; and wished everyone a Happy and Blessed Thanksgiving.

F. Weaver: Made the following comments regarding Mr. Bill Camp's upcoming retirement: he is a team player; his kindness and firmness is known throughout the district; Mr. Camp has been paid the highest compliment this evening that a man could have been paid – he will be responsible for training his replacement which means that he has done a great job!

E. Turner: Thanked Andrew and Vanessa for leading the audience in the Pledge of Allegiance this evening; complimented Cadet Clint Robbins for his special tribute to the flag stating that Veterans Day has a personal meaning to him; the Elementary Technology presentation this evening was outstanding; announced that he will be attending Wayne Memorial's play “Father Knows Best” and the play at John Glenn, “The Poison Pen” was a mystery/comedy which he enjoyed; John Glenn's JROTC Program hosted a Drill Competition last Saturday which was truly impressive; and commented that June 30, 2008 will be a “Black Monday” in our district since Mr. Bill Camp will be retiring and he will be greatly missed.

S. Monit: Congratulated Mr. Camp on his upcoming retirement and thanked him for training his replacement; thanked all of our veterans for without them our way of life would not be as comfortable as it is now; commented that the technology our district has in the classroom is beneficial to our students and we are lucky to be in a position to provide this to them; and wished everyone a “Happy Turkey Day!”

ADJOURNMENT: Approximately 7:55 p.m.
